A real servant. Part III

'Whoever wants to be great must become a servant.'
Mark 10:43

'If you wait for perfect conditions, you will never get anything done.' Eccs 11:4

'Put on the apron of humility, to serve one another?'
1 Peter 5:5

Real servants keep a low profile because showing-off and serving don't mix. They don't serve for the approval of others; they live for an audience of one.

'If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a servant of Christ.' Gals 1:10

You won't find real servants pushing and shoving for the limelight. Actually, they usually avoid it when possible, just quietly getting on with it.

A few mixed-up people start off as servants but end up as celebrities. They become addicted to attention, unaware that always being in the spotlight can eventually blind you.

If you feel like you're serving in some dingy corner, unknown and unappreciated, remember, God put you there for a purpose! So stay put until He chooses to move you.

Your ministry matters to Him!

You've got a few prominent features on your body that you could live without if you had to; it's the hidden functions of the heart, kidneys and lungs that are absolutely essential.

The same is true of Christ's body; the most significant service is often unseen.

In heaven God is going to openly reward people we've never heard of on earth; people who taught emotionally disturbed children, reached out to the homeless, cared for victims of crime, or served in a thousand unnoticed ways.

Throw yourselves into the work of the Master, confident that nothing you do for him is a waste of time or effort? (1Cor 15:58)

The great violinist, Niccolò Paganini willed his marvelous violin to city of Genoa on condition that it must never be played. The wood of such an instrument, while used and handled, wears only slightly, but set aside, it begins to decay. Paganini's lovely violin has today become worm-eaten and useless except as a relic. A Christian's unwillingness to serve may soon destroy his capacity for usefulness.

Jesus says he came to serve not to be served.

What about you?

Till next time God bless enjoy the lovely weather.

Pastor Mike.
